Join us at the GATES Annual Meeting

... to recognize and honor Connie Kirk's service to GATES and the Georgia vocational rehabilitation community. Connie joined Nobis Works in February 1977 as its first president. She has led Nobis Works' development from its incorporation in May 1977 to its national leadership position today in the field of rehabilitation services.

In addition, Connie's service to GATES has been unparalleled. She has worked tirelessly for the organization serving in numerous leadership positions including Chairwoman of the Board. She has been a champion for vocational rehabilitation with our legislative leaders working for funding and programs that will serve Georgia citizens with disabilities.

Connie Kirk

As a leader nationally and in her community, Connie serves as the South Regional Representative on the National Council of Work Centers, was the first woman inducted into the Rotary Club of Marietta and participated in the first class of Leadership Cobb. Connie was an active member of the WellStar Health System board of directors for many years and has received awards from the National Rehabilitation
