

The CRP Connector

The CRP Connector is a GATES publication for the purpose of highlighting individual, client and staff successes within Community Rehabilitation Programs of Georgia.

Wes' Success Story

Three years ago, at the age of 42, Wesley Vaughn was diagnosed with a devastating brain tumor. An operation saved his life, but removing the tumor caused optic nerve atrophy. His vision went darker every day - until it was completely gone.

Wesley lost his sight and his sense of independence. He lost his ability to get around, as well as his job as a supervisor in a manufacturing plant, because he could no longer safely perform the work.
